

BIG DEALS MADE IN CATTLE IN THE MIDLAND COUNTRY

One Sale Made Involves Sum of $90,000; Range Is in Fine Shape.

Midland, Tex., July 7.—A number of large cattle deals have been made in the Midland country during the past 10 days. One of the largest was the sale by C. A. Golden of his entire ranch outfit, 22 miles northeast of Midland to C. W. Hearrell. The purchase price was $90,000. Included in the sale were 1000 fine cows and 1000 calves. The property is to be turned over November 1.

C. W. Hearrell has sold for November delivery 1000 calves to T. A. Saca, of Midland. The terms of the sale were not made known.

Charles Wither, who has a ranch 25 miles south of Midland, in the Peck's spring neighborhood, has sold 1500 2 year old steers to the Prairie Cattle company of Hixby, Colo., delivery to be made at La Mesa on July 25. The Prairie Cattle company also has bought 2000 head of two from John M. Cowden at $44 a head.

CATTLE MOVEMENT IS SMALL IN VOLUME

Approximately 10,000 head of cattle were shipped into the United States from Mexico during the past week, according to the board of animal industry. The majority of the cattle were exported from Sonora into Douglas and Nogales, Arizona, very little being imported into El Paso. Because it is summer business in the local cattle market has slumped temporarily. Aside from a few non-important deals, very little business was transacted in this section.

Ten cars of cattle from along the Mexican National line were inspected and passed by the United States board of animal industry Monday morning. There was very little shipping done in the El Paso stockyards during the past week. One sale of 500 two year old steers was made by the Gardner Land and Cattle company. The steers were raised at Melrose, N. M., and were shipped to Harrisburg, Neb.

NOGALES CATTLEMAN SELL HEREFORDS

Nogales, Ariz., July 7.—Loretto Carillo and Earl Turner, owners of the Carillo-Turner cattle ranch near Nogales, have sold a big bunch of Hereford cattle to W. G. Bowman and Harry J. Brown, who have shipped from Huachuca siding. The number of cattle in the delivery was not stated in the advice received here.

CATTLE TRESPASS ON FOREST IS ALLEGED

Silver City, N. M., July 7.—Suit has been filed in the federal court at Santa Fe against R. F. Keene, a cattleman living nine miles north of Silver City, charging him with having permitted 60 head of cattle to trespass on the Gila national forest. The United States attorney asks the imposition of a fine of $100 and costs for the alleged offense.

CHARBON KILLS MUCH LIVESTOCK ON TEXAS RANCHES

Disease Is Prevalent in Nine Counties of State; Treatment Is Suggested.

Austin, Tex., July 7.—During the past week more than 1500 head of stock have died of charbon (anthrax), in Texas. About 1000 of these deaths were among range beef cattle and dairy cows valued at an average of $45 per head. The other 500 deaths were among work stock, both horses and mules, valued at an average of $300 per head. Therefore, $145,000 has been lost to stockmen during the past seven days. This is not all the loss, for in many places the small farmer, the tenant, has lost severely, because all of his work stock has died of charbon, leaving him with absolutely no draft animals with which to work his crop.

Epidemic in Form.
Charbon is now prevalent in epidemic proportion in nine counties of the state. Every case of charbon causing the 1500 deaths during last week could have been prevented if the owners had taken warning last February, when the state board of health urged vaccination of all stock in infected regions. Just so long as the stock owners refuse to vaccinate (inoculate), against charbon, and refuse to burn the carcasses of animals dead of charbon, just so long will they continue to lose thousands of dollars annually, says the state board of health, which recommends the following precautions as the only known means of controlling charbon among animals:

Vaccination, isolation of the sick from the well animals, complete destruction of all carcasses of animals which died of charbon, and reporting of all suspicious cases to the local county health officer.

Animals sick of charbon should be isolated and separated from the well animals. Charbon is transmitted by the horsefly and by other blood sucking insects.

HEAVY WOOL CLIP IN CORONA DISTRICT

Corona, N. M., July 7.—The sheepmen of this part of the state are finishing shearing their flocks and the wool clip is one of the largest in several years. There are 500,000 pounds of wool now stored here. The clip this year is of a particularly fine grade.

Warden Bros. shipped their entire clip to Boston. It was purchased by Ralph Vanderwort, of Brown-Adams company.

Pop & Digne have finished shearing their sheep and have a large clip. Buitemore Bros. have finished shearing their flocks and report an unusually large clip.

TAIBAN STOCK OWNERS BUY REGISTERED STOCK

Taliban, N. M., July 7.—B. T. Robinson, Mrs. Nannie White and N. A. Vaughter recently purchased between them 100 head of registered Hereford cows and calves from the Lewis ranch, west of Fortales. The stock has been placed in their ranches south of town and will be used to grade up their herds. The range in this section is in fine shape and conditions are reassuring for a good year both for the stockmen and the farmers.

Baseball Birthday Bulletin

By ERNEST J. LANIGAN.
July 7.

1881—George Joseph Moriarty, captain and third baseman of the Tigers, born in Chicago, Ill. In 1901 he played his first game in fast company with the Cubs, but failed to make his mark. Then and then Chance. Going into the minors in 1905, he played so well for Toledo that the New York Americans got him and he played in Gotham till 1909, being constantly shifted from one position to another and getting no chance to do himself justice. Most of his work for Detroit has been at the hot corner. He is one of the ablest and has made three clean steals of home this year. Besides being a player of ability, he is a poet, song writer and inventor.

ARIZONA MAY GET ANOTHER ELK HERD

Phoenix, Ariz., July 7.—A movement has been started by G. M. Willard, the new state game warden, to import another herd of elk from the Yellowstone park and turn them loose in the Graham mountains of eastern Arizona.

Less than two years ago six elk were imported from the Yellowstone and turned loose in the Sitgreaves national forest south of Winslow. The best some $2500, was defrayed by members of the Elk order in Arizona.

Warden Willard has been notified that Arizona can have 50 more of the elk State health officer N. L. Loomis, who led the movement which resulted in the importation of the first herd, says that the people of Graham county will be glad to pay a great proportion of the expense of bringing another herd for liberation in their district.
